Our Mission

The mission of the Roads to Reading Initiative is to provide quality children's literature and educational materials to children's literacy programming in underserved communities in the United States

"Thank you, thank you, thank you, for the new books for our first grade reading programs! The first grade teachers and students can't wait for me to process the books and get them in their book tubs. Your organization has helped us replace many books that have been "loved" to pieces. Newer books are more appealing, as we know that our children are more excited to choose a book that is in better condition. Once again, we appreciate your organization's work towards providing quality books for children."

*Mrs. Sherry Geier
Title I Teacher*

Your gift helps children in underserved communities start a path to a brighter future. Your gift of $25.00 can give a child their first book. Your gift of $120.00 can help provide a pre-school class of 30 children to start their own classroom library. Your gift of $700.00 will provide reading and education materials for summer reading and tutorial programming.

Your gift is needed and appreciated.

With your support, the Roads to Reading Initiative can continue to provide services and advocacy for more than 4,000 organizations across the country, that serve over 1 million children who are in dire need of quality children's literature and children's literacy programming.
